MR. DULANEY WILL ACCEPT Waggaman Trusteeship if Chosen at

Meeting of Creditors. Doubt having been expressed in some quarters as to whether Mr. H. Rozier Dulany would accept the place of trustee of the Waggaman bankruptcy case, if he is elected, a prominent Washington attorney, who is a close friend of Mr. Dulany, said today that he would accept the appointment if it comes to him with sufficient unanimity to assure him that the Waggaman creditors have full confidence in his ability and integrity to conduct the tedious proceedings. "Mr. Dulaney will, I have every reason to believe," added the attorney, "receive an almost unanimous vote, and he will acalmost unanimous vote, and he will accept the trusteeship, although he is not, nor has he been in any sense, a seeker for the appointment.'

Since the announcement was exclusively made by The Star that Mr. Dulaney would be urged for the election by some of the largest interests involved in the Waggaman tangle, sentiment has crystalized in his favor and the outlook is that his election will be accomplished without resistance on the first ballot. Another proceeding in equity by which it is sought to have Thomas E. Waggaman removed as a trustee has been instituted in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia. The complainant is Ada H. Wiliey. In addition to Mr. Waggaman, Irving Williamson Fathering. Williamson, Katherine A. Stewart, Samuel E. Allen, jr., and John W. Pilling are named defendants.

The complainant says that December 1, 1898, she placed in Mr. Waggaman's hands $800 for investment. She adds that he delivered to her a promissory note, signed by Katherine A. Stewart and John Stewart as makers. The note was payable, two years after its date, to the order of Samuel E. Allen, jr., at the office of Mr. Waggaman. A notation, she explans, appeared on the note, indicating that it was secured by a deed of trust on sublot 93, square 360, and lot 5, square 514. Interest has not been paid on the note since June 14 last. The court is informed that about December 15, 1898, a deed of trust to secure the note mentioned and other notes was duly executed, delivered and recorded, by which Katherine A. Stewart and John Stewart conveyed to Messrs. Waggaman and Williamson, as trustees, sublot 93, square 360, and lot 5, square 514.

The complainant in asking the court to remove Mr. Waggaman as trustee, and to decree a sale of the property, mentions the fact that Mr. Waggaman has been adjudicated a bankrupt. Attorney Joseph R. Fague represents the

Present "The Tyrolean Queen" at Car-

"The Tyrolean Queen," an operetta, was splendidly given last evening at Carroll Hall by the girls of St. Patrick's parish, a large audience witnessing the acting and listening with delight to the singing. Many floral gifts were passed by Father Stafford to the favored artistes during the course of the operetta, and Miss Catherine Lackaye, a sister of Wilton Lackaye, the wellknown actor, who staged the production, was the recipient of an immense bunch of chrysanthemums, the gift of the children whom she had trained for their parts.

Every member of the company was se-lected from the girls of the parish, Irene Kemno, a little ten-year-old, leading the company in the part of Rosalie, Queen of the Tyroleans, and receiving great ap-plause in recognition of her good work during the action of the piece. She was pronounced as good as the average professional juvenile, and was presented with a bunch of chrysanthemums by her admirers, Father Stafford handing the flowers to the child after one of her numbers. Other members of the company deserving special commendation were Miss Edna Becker, in the role of Mother Grunt; Miss Mabel Kirby, Queen of the Fairles, and the Misses Lillian Burke and Anna Clarke, the Misses Lillian Burke and Anna Clarke, the Tyrolean maidens. it was decided to call on the police of oth-er cities for aid, and a telegram was sent to Major Sylvester of the Washington police department, as Mrs. Sykes has reason to believe that if her son's mind had become deranged and he had wandered away that he has gone to Washington, as he had been anticipating his proposed trip to the capital on his honeymoon tour for some time. There is reason to believe that his mental faculties have become impaired after weeks of suffering during his illness and that he has wandered away.

The local police met the Norfolk boat upon its reaching here this morning, but nothing was seen of Sykes.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES HELD TO COMMEMORATE THE DAY.

Donation Day at the Hospital-Meeting of Catholic Clergy-General Matters of Interest.

Special Correspo ndence of The Evening Star. ALEXANDRIA, Va., November 24, 1904. Religious services in observance of Thanksgiving day were held this morning at 10:30 o'clock in Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church. The congregations of that church, the Methodist Protestant Church, the First Baptist Church, the Second Presbyterian Church and the Methodist Episcopal Church South united for the Thanksgiving exercises. The sermon was delivered by Rev. Dr. Frank J. Brooke of the Presbyterian Church and Rev. J. P. Stump of the M. E. Church South Rev. John Wray of the Baptist Church, Rev. J. H. S. Ewell of the Methodist Protestant Church and Rev. J. A. Jeffers of Trinity Church took part in the services. The auditorium took part in the services. The auditorium was well filled.

In response to a Thanksgiving appeal today has been made a donation day at the Alexandria Hospital. Since 10 o'clock this morning a committee of the managers of the institution has been on duty at the hospital receiving donations. In the appeal issued by the board the following statements were made: "The hospital has for its constant aim the furnishing of the best attention to the sick and suffering, at as small an expense as possible, and, if need be, to an expense as possible, and, if need be, to give this service free. Each year a large number of patients are treated gratuitously, but it is only through the hearty co-opera-tion of its many friends that its measure of usefulness has been so large. We have a staff of able and interested physicians and all is going on most propitiously, but our friends must not forget that we need their help. If they fall short or fall to come to our aid, our work must stop. Owing to the large number of cases treated, and especially to the page of tracked. ly to the cases of typhoid fever among the nurses, our expenses have been unusually large this year, and we trust that all will make their donations as large as possible."

Chicago Woman's Fatal Dream.

As a result of a dream, Mrs. Lizzie Couet, forty-one years old, lost her life in Chicago yesterday, and her husband and infant child were fatally burned in a fire which destroyed their home. The woman from a hiding place in the bottom of a one hand and her baby in her other arm and went to investigate. The lamp fell from the woman's hand and exploded. Her husband, aroused from sleep in an adjoining room, made a brave attempt to put out the flame, and finally succeeded with the aid of a mattress, but only after he, as well as the wife and child, had been frightfully burned. Mrs. Couet died while being taken to the hospital.

Standard Oil to Answer Lawson. Though it is denied that the Standard Oil capitalists attacked by Thomas W. Lawson in "Frenzied Finance" are connected with the $350,000 suit brought against Lawson by Paul Fuller of Coudert Bros., facts were learned yesterday in New York which indicate that Standard Oil men are on Lawson's trail. There is pending in Massachusetss a suit for $3,500,000 against H. H. Rogers, brought by Receiver Pepper of the Boston Gas Company, one of the subsidiaries of the Gas Company, one of the subsidiaries of the Bay State Gas Company, which is an echo of the war between Rogers and Addicks and Lawson. This suit will come up for trial about the middle of December. It is Rogers' purpose to call Lawson to the witness stand and question him concerning his charges against Mr. Rogers. If Lawson fails to make good under oath all he has said drastic action, the exact nature of which could not be learned, will be taken by Rogers.
